SPECIAL NOTICES.

R. ROWLEY VS. MASON.
Notice to the public.
The Mason Manufacturing Company

New York city,
Philadelphia, dated December 15, 1869, is not consistent with the facts. The suit of Rowley vs. Mason has not been decided, and it is not known on what date it will be heard before the court. We shall continue to supply all orders for Mason's Improved Fruit Jar, notwithstanding the suit brought by him, and are willing to prosecute. The courts of this city are open to Mr. Rowley, and if he sues us, we invite him to promptly and amicably settle his difficulties with us. We are the original inventor of his trouble, as we are the owners of the patent, or "new release," of the Keyston Duster, Star, Frankenstein, and also manufacturers of screw rings under Mason's letters patent.

This is the fact, to which we call the especial attention of the trade, that even the patent which Mr. Rowley has temporarily obtained gives him no claim whatever to the invention, and that he has no right to sue us for damages, to which he may be entitled. But the glass top jars we manufacture under our own patent, and the public can see and use them without fear of being sued.

STEPHEN R. PINKNEY, President
John L. Mason, Superintendent
New York, Dec. 31, 1869.

STALLIONS.

ARAHIM STALLION FOR SALE.—THE PURE BLOOD HORSE SAID IS FOR SALE AS A BREEDER TO HIS PRESENT OWNERS. THE BREEDER IS A RUSSIAN, WHO IS A MOST VALUABLE ACQUISITION. THE FOLLOWING PUPPES GIVE THE PURITY OF HIS BLOOD, WITH OTHER INTERESTING FACTS RELATING THERETO:

FAI (also spelled FAIS), a gelding, given by the groom of Nuber Pasha, Minister to Franklin, was foaled on the 27th of January, 1868, at the residence of Nuber Pasha, the famous ahorasan, the property of a Abdul Medjid. It's dam was Oliman, the property of Nuber Pasha, and is the daughter of the last Sultan. Her name is Oliman. All in 1862. Therein said is a cross between the Nubian and the horse of her side and the Anatolian breed of the Khorasan.

This grand Arabian exhibited wonderful powers of endurance, and was, when riding, ridden constantly by an officer during that campaign.

For further particulars apply to Mr. FOSTER at the offices of Wilkes' of the Times.
